CORAM: R.S.MOHITE, J.
VACATION JUDGE
DATED: 18/5/2005.

PC:

1. Advocate appearing for the original Defendants 1 and 2 states that his client and the wife and son of defendant No.2 will not enter into the bed room which is presently occupied by defendant no.3, his wife and two daughters when there is anybody present in the room. Both the parties mutually agreed that they will not create any nuisance for each other as they are living in the same flat. In the light of this statement parties are agreed that the A.O. should be disposed of without prejudice of their rights and contentions. Accordingly, A.O. is disposed of.
